

LAST AMENDED AND ADOPTED 12-6-2006

The National Organization of Professional Black Natural Resources Conservation Service Employees

Bylaws

Article I - Government

Section 1: Laws

The laws of The Organization shall consist of the Constitution and Bylaws and additional regulations duly passed by the members and the Executive Board of The Organization.

The Bylaws of The Organization shall be the secondary laws and rules governing the internal affairs of The Organization. The latest issue of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the means to conduct all official meetings of The Organization.

Article II - Membership

Section 1: Charter Membership

Charter membership was granted to those members of The Organization who obtained membership and financially supported The Organization prior to the ratification of the Constitution and Bylaws, July 14, 1992.

Section 2: Regular Membership

Regular membership shall be granted to any person who meets membership eligibility of The Organization as set forth in Article IV of the Constitution upon payment of current annual regular membership dues. (For amount, see Addendum A of the Bylaws).

Section 3: Life Membership

Life membership shall be granted to any person eligible for regular membership as set forth in Article IV of the Constitution upon payment of current lifetime membership dues. (For amount, see Addendum A of the Bylaws).

Section 4: Sustaining Life Membership

Sustaining life membership shall be granted to any member that has paid current lifetime membership dues as set forth in Article IV of the Constitution, and continues to contribute funds annually in order for The Organization to be self-sustaining.

Section 5: Sustaining Membership

Sustaining membership shall be granted to any member that has paid current membership dues as set forth in Article IV of the constitution, and continues to pay additional funds to sustain The Organization.

Section 6: Student Membership

Student membership shall be granted to any person that is currently enrolled in high school or an institution of higher education, which are involved with natural resource related organizations and meet membership eligibility of The Organization as set forth in Article IV of the Constitution upon payment of the current annual student membership dues. (For amount, see Addendum A of the Bylaws).

Section 7: Associate Membership

Associate membership shall be granted to any person who has rendered notable service in advancement of the objectives of The Organization upon an affirmative vote by ballot of three-fourths (75%) of the members eligible to vote. The members of The Organization may submit nominations for associate membership(s) to the Executive Board. The members shall be notified in writing, by the Executive Board, of any person nominated for associate membership at least three (3) weeks prior to the election for such purpose. Associate members shall have the rights and privileges of regular members, excluding the right to make motions and hold office. (For amount, see Addendum A of the Bylaws).

Section 8: Honorary Membership

Honorary membership shall be granted, by a majority vote of the Executive Board, to any person based on meritorious service performed as deemed appropriate in alignment with the goals and objectives of The Organization. Any member of the Executive Board may submit nominations for honorary membership(s). Individuals receiving honorary members shall pay no dues for membership for the current calendar year in which the honorary membership has been granted. Honorary members shall have the rights and privileges of regular members, excluding the right to make motions, vote and hold office. Members of local chapters may make nominations for honorary membership to regional representatives for submission to the Executive Board.

Section 9: Institutional or Organizational Membership

Any institution or organization which subscribes to the purpose of The Organization as set forth in the Constitution shall be eligible for membership after having been approved by the members upon an affirmative vote by ballot of three-fourths (75%) of the members eligible to vote. The members shall be notified in writing, by the Executive Board, of any group nominated for institutional or organizational membership at least three (3) weeks prior to the election for such purpose. Institutional or organizational members shall have all of the rights and privileges of regular members except those of holding office. Institutional or organizational membership shall be recognized as one member having one vote. (For amount, see Addendum A of the Bylaws).

Section 10: Terms of Membership

The term of membership shall cover a twelve (12) month period to commence January 1st through December 31st of the same calendar year.

Section 11: New Membership

The term of new memberships shall cover the period from the date of receipt of such membership dues through December 31st of the same calendar year. Membership dues shall not be prorated for new members.

Section 12: Renewal of Membership

Members of The Organization shall accept responsibility to financially support such entity through the payment of membership dues within thirty (30) days of the commencement of the new membership period. Membership dues paid at The Organization's annual meeting shall be applied to meet membership obligation for the following year; thus, the member shall be covered for the period of January 1st through December 31st of the following year.
